

HOME HAPPENINGS

The Presbyterian parsonage on Court street has been painted.

Silvio Ruscelto is having his business place and residence painted.

A telephone line was run Tuesday to the residence of E. L. McClave on West Main street.

Six new patrons of the Community Library have taken out cards during the past week.

The fronts of the Citizens' Co-operative Co. store and the Dodd-Bills garage have been painted.

The senior class of the Normal went to Youngstown last Saturday and had the class picture taken.

Ice-cream and strawberry festival in the park Saturday evening, June 19.

Members of Argus Masonic Lodge are arranging for a picnic for themselves and families on the Fourth of July.

Our friends will confer a favor by sending to the Dispatch any item of local interest that may come to their notice.

A good-sized audience enjoyed the concert given in college chapel last Friday night by the Dollar Band Orchestra of Youngstown.

Arrangement have already been made for all business places in the village to close all day July 5, which will be generally observed as the Fourth.

At the meeting of Canfield lodge of Odd Fellows next Wednesday night the initiatory degree will be conferred and it is desired that there be a large attendance of members.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Chas. Credico this (Friday) evening at 7 o'clock. The regular session will be followed by a social hour.

It is rumored that a Youngstown man is arranging to operate an auto passenger transfer line between Youngstown and Canfield, starting from the city in the morning and making four round trips daily.

Monday evening Mrs. F. P. Kaiser was tendered a reception by the Wilmodaughis Club at the home of Mrs. C. C. Fowler on West Main street. Mrs. Kaiser was presented with a little remembrance which she highly prizes.

A government official on Tuesday inspected the Farmers National Bank of Canfield and its affairs in the best possible condition. He complimented Cashier M. H. Liddle and his assistants upon the up-to-date methods employed in the conduct of the bank's business.

Only a few years ago woods owned by John F. Pink bordered both sides of the Cornersburg-Canfield road, near Cornersburg. The forest on one side has entirely disappeared and the other will be only a memory within a few weeks as a saw mill is in active every day converting the timber into lumber.

A few days since Mrs. H. L. Sondecke received a letter, postmarked at Youngstown, in which $2.50 was enclosed. No name was signed to the letter but the writer made it clear that the remittance covered a debt Mrs. Sondecke did not know about but which conscious dictated should be paid.

The members of Argus Masonic Lodge and their families have been invited to join the Youngstown Lodge, Western Star, Hillman and Youngstown, in their annual outing and basket picnic to be held in Idora park on St. John's Day, Wednesday, June 23. The occasion promises to be a most enjoyable one.

A pony outfit purchased by W. W. Hendricks of Ellsworth township for his sons attracted considerable attention on the village streets last Saturday. The spotted and spotted and are seemingly very proud of their new harness and the fifty rubber tire buggy they draw while their youthful drivers are out for enjoyment.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. I. A. Manchester in Dublin Wednesday, June 16, at 2 p. m. Leader, Mrs. T. L. Kiernan. Subject, "The Home Base and Alaska." There will be special music. Conveyance will be furnished for all who desire to attend the meeting.

At the meeting of Council Monday night an ordinance providing for the election of attorney E. R. Ziegler as village solicitor was passed under suspension of the rules as was the ordinance. A resolution providing for the improvement of drains and sewers about the village was introduced and laid on the table until the next meeting.

While Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McClave and little daughter Margaret were in Youngstown one day last week, their automobile was being driven on a street and collided with their machine, badly damaging it, but the occupants escaped injury except the child who was considerably cut about the left eye by broken glass from the wind shield.

Claude D. Rupert of Canfield township and Miss Ethel Hixon of New Buffalo were united in marriage in Youngstown Tuesday, Rev. W. H. Hudson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, performing the ceremony. The young people will make their home with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rupert. They have the best wishes of many friends.

Nearly three hundred Mahoning and Columbiana county farmers composed the automobile party which visited Geauga county Wednesday. The main party left Canfield at 7 o'clock, others joining enroute. Quite a number of the finest dairy farms in the state were visited and the blooded stock inspected. Modern methods are employed by Geauga county dairymen and the visitors from Mahoning and Columbiana counties learned much that will be to their advantage in the future. The visitors were entertained in Burton at noon, a big dinner being served by the people of the village and surrounding country. Mr. Galehouse, county agricultural agent, who planned the trip and carried it through so successfully, was much gratified to see the interest manifested by our farmers in the outing. It furnished unmistakable proof that they are wide-awake and progressive.

COLLEGE CLASS REUNION

The ninth annual reunion of the 1906 class of the Northeastern Ohio Normal College was held in Canfield Friday afternoon and evening, June 4th, 1915, at the home of Miss Clara Williams, a member of the class.

The class yell:

Kimbo, Limbo, Jimbo, Jax,
Whimbo, Grimbo, Drimbo, Drax,
Kizeo, Rizeo, Indle, Lix,
Rixle, Dixie, Nineteen Six,
is as fresh in the mind of the members of this class as it was in the happy studios days of college life.

Physically, we are nine years older but in mind, heart and spirit we are the same jolly set as we were in 1906.

This class has had a reunion every year since it graduated and every meeting binds us closer and closer in the fraternal spirit of classmates and the firmer friendship that increases with advancing years. No college class holds more pleasant and successful reunions; no class holds more dear the college and class spirit, and no class is better equipped in a musical and social way to enjoy a reunion.

The members began to arrive at 2 p. m. and at 6:30 p. m. all present remained for the home of Mrs. Sondecke where a palatable and bountiful banquet had been prepared in that excellent style for which Mrs. Sondecke is noted.

After an hour spent at the banquet table, all returned to the Williams home where the evening was spent as only such a class can spend it. Many vocal and instrumental selections were rendered in keeping with the spirit and dignity of the class. Each member gave an account of his or her doings during the nine years since we graduated, and the commendable preparation that each has made for life's work and the laudable vocation that each has chosen are indicative of the distinctive qualities found in this class.

Among this class are found farmers, home-makers, music teachers, high school teachers, principals of schools, grade teachers, kindergarten teachers, surveyors, clerks, lumbermen, merchants.

During the year just ended one of the class, Roy Davis, was drowned. His death is the first in our class and thus begins what we all realize shall sooner or later be the inevitable destiny of our class. Flowers were sent by the class at the time of his funeral, but, at Friday's reunion, a fund was provided whereby flowers shall be sent to all members who are sick for any considerable length of time. We believe in giving flowers to the living rather than to the dead.

Postal card pictures of the chapel were sent by the class to all absent members as a token of friendship and remembrance. These cards were signed by all present. After spending ten hours in happy heart to heart reunion and in fellowship such as only a united class faithful and true to each other can give, we sang "Love's Old Sweet Song" and at 12:15 a. m. spoke the hardest word to speak—farewell and separated to meet next year at the same time and place with the hope that every member will be present.

Letters of regret were read from Donald Kirk and Roland Lyon, the latter affirming that he had been married May 19, 1915.

The following members were present: Charles Allen, Geo. W. Alloway, Hugh Bowman and wife (Ethel Deife), Rubie Childster and friend (Harry May), Frances Fitch, Albert Powers and wife (Mabel Dryball), Ardis Stahl, Clara Williams, Althea Ziegler.

The class is as follows:

Charles Allen, surveyor and farmer, Ellsworth Station.
Geo. W. Alloway, principal of schools, Youngstown.
Hugh Bowman, farmer, Ellsworth.
Rubie Childster, music teacher, Canfield.
E. Morgan Faust, principal of schools, Youngstown.
Frances Fitch, kindergarten teacher, Ellsworth.
Lester U. Hulin, principal of schools, Youngstown.
Hattie (Sanzenbacher) Kaercher, clerk, Youngstown.
Donald Kirk, lumber dealer, Axis, Ala.
Edward Luke.
Clinton Lynn, merchant, Tiffin.
Roland Lyon, farmer, East Liverpool.
Garfield O'Dell, merchant, Gilbert, Arizona.
Albert Powers, automobile salesman, Canfield.
Estella (Dryball) Pinar, homekeeper, Harbor Creek, Pa.
Grover Schurrenberger, farmer, Canfield.
Josephine (Helsel) Sondecke, homekeeper, Mantua.
Hazel Sutton, schoolteacher, Youngstown.
Ardis Stahl, farmer, Greenford.
Clara Williams, high school teacher, Canfield.
Clara Williams, merchant, Miami, Arizona.
Althea Ziegler, homekeeper, New Middleton.
J. Carl Zimmerman, superintendent of schools, Damascus.
Florence (Deife) Zimmermann, homekeeper, Damascus.

The following are the officers of the class:

President, Geo. W. Alloway.
Vice-president, Ardis Stahl.
Secretary, Rubie Childster.
Treasurer, Althea Ziegler.
Reunion managers, Hugh Bowman, Josephine Sondecke, Hazel Sutton.

I wish all members success, pleasure, and happiness in the days that are to come, and that each shall continue to work out a complete life of service.

I shall be glad to hear from the members at any time.

Geo. W. ALLOWAY, President.

Coming Concert

Under the direction of Prof. Jacobs, the choir of the Central Christian church, Youngstown, will give a concert in the M. E. Church of this place Monday evening, June 28. Admission and program announced later.

Chautauqua Meeting.

All graduates of the local Chautauqua are urged to attend a meeting in town hall, Wednesday, June 16th, 8:30 p. m. eastern time. O. B. Stephenson, a representative of the Chautauqua Chautauqua Co., will be present.

S. J. Post, who wrecked the Portage Savings & Loan Co. of Ravenna and was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary, has been transferred to the Sandusky soldiers' home at the order of Gov. Willis.

Six or eight months' time and an expense of $50,000 is involved in repainting the Brooklyn bridge.

HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT

Fine Class of Thirteen Graduated With Honors Last Friday Morning.

Another successful year at the Northeastern Ohio Normal College closed last Friday morning when a class of thirteen young men and women graduated and received their diplomas. Evidence that the people of the community are deeply interested in the cause of education was shown by the large crowd in attendance, every seat in the spacious chapel being occupied. The hall was attractively decorated with plants and flowers and the class color, red, was much in evidence. On the wall back of the rostrum artistically arranged was the class motto, "Wei Die Arbeit So Ist Der Lohn." Music for the occasion was furnished by the college orchestra and while the opening selection was being played the class, headed by the faculty, filed into the chapel and took places on the rostrum. Following is the class roll:

Mary Ruth Arner.
Fred Cameron Fitch.
Willis H. Gebhardt.
Mary Elizabeth Henninger.
Emma Virginia Kirkpatrick.
Ella Murriel Lynn.
W. Bryan Lynn.
Lottie Josephine Myers.
Kathryn Eugenia Nash.
Vern Veltan Rupp.
Leeta Vern Smith.
Ivan A. Thomas.
Ina Mae Young.

The first speaker was Miss Mary Henninger who gave in an interesting way the Class History. The Class Vow was good and well rendered by Miss Kathryn Nash. Ivan Thomas gave the Class Oration, having for his subject, "Complete Education," which was well handled. The annual address was delivered by Prof. B. F. Stanton of the Alliance public schools, and was one of the best ever heard here. His words to the class were especially fitting and can hardly fail to be a life inspiration not only to the class but to all who heard it. It is a matter of regret that the masterful effort cannot be published in the Dispatch in full. In well chosen words Prof. F. P. Kaiser presented the diplomas to the class. The benediction by Rev. I. N. Burger brought the very interesting commencement exercises to a close.

The annual reunion of the Alumni Association of the N. E. O. N. C. was held in college chapel Thursday night. Despite unfavorable weather conditions there was a good attendance. President H. J. Beardsley presided. The address of the evening was delivered by Prof. E. M. Faust of Youngstown, a member of the class of 1906; and was thoroughly enjoyed by all who heard it. The banquet was served by the Methodist ladies in the church dining room and they were given unstinted praise for the excellence of the menu and the elaborate and beautiful table and room decorations. J. B. Jones acted as toastmaster. The welcome to the class of 1915 to membership in the association was given by Miss Elsie Osborn and William Gibson responded. Other honorees who responded to toasts were A. B. Williamson, J. I. Manchester, Prof. F. P. Kaiser, Mrs. Laura Craig and Prof. G. W. Alloway. All expressed the pleasure it gave them to be present and urged the association to bend every effort to continue its interest in the road question. When the residents of any particular street strenuously oppose the use of a steel scraper, why should those who possibly never use such street or roadway insist on its use?

In a letter received from Clinton Coven, State Highway Commissioner, in writing on the cost of such roads, he says: "It seems that the only remedy is to wage a campaign of education in your township and see that men are elected to office who are intelligent and will make a study of the road problem. We know only too well that the condition of our roads exists in many places in the state, and we have often wondered that its local citizens would endure such a system and permit it to exist."

"Of course, officials do not act in the wrong purposely, but because they are not acquainted with the best and most economical methods of caring for the roads."

Anyone who sends to the State Highway department or secretary of state at Columbus, may have without cost a copy of good roads bulletin No. 20. It will cost only the time of making the request and a postal card to send for it. If you are interested in good roads, you will want one of these bulletins.

In the mean time, Knock! Knock! waste of wealth and destruction of our dirt roads. And then, Boost! Boost economy and better roads and see that you do your part in making them.

W. C. WILSON.

MORE ABOUT DIRT ROADS

A soft answer turneth away wrath; but to the weary traveler, alleged improvements of our dirt roads causeth it to return again.

The fallibility of man and his proneness to err is no excuse or palliation for the individual who does not profit by the mistakes of the past; but, like those who followed the trail of the lost calf, trod, year after year, in the same old rut and whose ears are deaf to the appeals of progress and reason.

Men differ in opinions, and 'tho we may respect the man we may damn his opinion; and very justly and very efficiently may we do so, when dealing the opinion of a surgeon we are given the opinion of a blacksmith; when dealing the opinion of a dentist, we are given the opinion of a cobbler. Yet this is what is being done repeatedly by the trustees of Canfield township. The advice of superintendents who follow the trail of the lost calf and who have not given many hours of solid thought to the road question is taken and acted upon in preference to that of men who travel the public highways, daily; who have made a study of road conditions as they exist in different townships and localities and who have made a study of the most modern and advanced ideas on the upkeep and repair of our public highways.

Who is most interested in a public highway? The individual who travels it daily and knows its wants and needs, or the individuals who seldom, if ever, travel it and who measure its wants and needs in dollars and cents?

Mr. Lynn in his article last week intimates that the writer hereof endeavored to give his readers an erroneous idea of the expense of road repairs. "One dollar per hour per mile," but this is only a part of the story; and the writer reiterates his statement of approximately $1000.00 per year, as made in the Dispatch issue of May 28th. $868.08 was spent for road upkeep last year (1914) and as much as $1500.00 per year has been spent heretofore. And this does not include $225.00 for a new road scraper.

On the route over which the writer travels, daily, there are not ten feet of ditches that have been deepened or widened by the use of the steam engine and scraper, but there are new ditches, without outlets on the side of the roadway whilst in the middle of the public highway grass and weeds have taken root and the crop looks promising.

And the public is asked to go over the roads of the township and judge for themselves. Does the writer lack ability to judge? Or is he supposed to be wailing vengeance on township officials to satisfy some personal whim, by misrepresentation, exaggeration and falsification? We will back up every assertion that we have made by a voucher of 100 to 500 to their veracity and truthfulness. But tell us—what of the insinuation that King drags are being used, in compliance with law? Where are they? and when are they used and where are they used? We ask the public "to go and judge for themselves."

The writer hereof suffered a loss of $10 on one week (lost time and maintenance of additional equipment) because of the condition in which our dirt roads were left by the traction engine and steel scraper. This is one reason why he and presumably others are interested in the road question. When the residents of any particular street strenuously oppose the use of a steel scraper, why should those who possibly never use such street or roadway insist on its use?

The Power of Suggestion

Usually about this time of the year every man is debating with himself as to what he will wear during the coming Summer.

In some cases the styles have changed quite a lot and a man must do some tall thinking to answer the question.

Possibly he thinks that the new style may not look exactly right on him when he first puts it on. It may seem a little too snug or too loose.

In a case of this kind a man really needs the suggestion and counsel of an experienced clothing man—one who has made a careful study of the business.

We consider ourselves authority on this, competent to talk, and we feel absolutely sure of our ground.

For that reason we ask you to place your confidence in us—experience shows that you will not have any cause to regret.

There's surely something to suit you in Clothcraft at $10 to $20. Our spring line is complete.
